

Mission Statement

Promote professionalism in public procurement by providing a forum for shared resources, education and networking for all members and stakeholders.

IPPA is made up of dedicated and committed professionals like you – from a variety of government agencies. They are known for their ethical integrity, individual leadership, and emphasis on mastering the art and science that is public procurement. IPPA helps you close the gap in achieving your professional needs!

Benefits of Membership

1. Attend NIGP seminars and learn innovative procurement skills.
2. Prepare for professional certification that is administered through the Universal Public Procurement Certification Council (UPPCC) & NIGP.
3. Network, exchange ideas and information, and discuss current issues with peers.
4. Develop and enhance your skills and talents in order to become more competitive in today's business climate.
5. Demonstrate leadership through volunteer service on a chapter board or committee - experiences that allow you to acquire new skills in planning, managing, and organizing.
6. Learn more about new career opportunities and promotions available in the local and regional area.
7. Attend NIGP webinars at no cost to you.
8. The opportunity to attend 4 chapter meetings per year, which offer great guest speakers on subjects that affect public procurement (and food)!
9. Earn scholarship funds to put towards trainings, NIGP Annual Forum, certifications, and more!

About Us

As an IPPA member, your agency enjoys special member-only discounts offered to registrants, and the savings can quickly repay membership costs. Educational offerings include:

- NIGP Courses
- Lunch & Learns
- Online Courses
- On-Site & Virtual Training

We also host 4 annual chapter meeting events, as well as our highly anticipated Reverse Vendor Trade Show.

Membership in IPPA is open to all public procurement personnel in the State of Idaho, including federal, state, city, county, and any other political subdivision of the State (such as school districts, highway districts, port authorities, fire districts, etc.).

IPPA is the only NIGP Chapter in Idaho and serves all of Idaho for chapter membership, training, education, and sponsored events. If government procurement is your profession, or if you have an interest in procurement, then IPPA is for you!
